Corbett Names George Greig Secretary Of Agriculture

Gov. Tom Corbett this week announced he intends to nominate George Greig, a farmer and agriculture leader from Linesville, Crawford County, as Secretary of Agriculture.

“George Greig is an experienced farmer, businessman and leader,” Gov. Corbett said. “His record of success and service makes him an ideal choice to lead this important state agency.”

Greig, 59, has held many positions within the Pennsylvania Farm Bureau, where he has served as the State Board Director for the past six years. Before that, he served as Crawford County Farm Bureau President for eight years, Crawford County board member for 12 years and has been local affairs chairman and served on the legislative committee.
